NOTE—Our customers are cautioned against competitors of ours who copy the language of our catalogues and then attach a lower printed price, hoping thereby to convey the impression that they furnish the same quality of goods that we do for less money, when in reality their prices are on inferior articles. We are ready at any time to send our goods for comparison with those made by our competitors, and allow the sale to be made on the merits of goods and prices.

WARNING—All infringements of above Copyright will be promptly prosecuted.

INTRODUCTION.

WE DESIRE to call the attention of our numerous customers, and the Craft in general, to the fact that we have thoroughly revised our catalogue of Blue Lodge supplies, have introduced many new illustrations of regular goods, and added a number of new articles that can be used to advantage in the work of the Lodge. The articles described in this list are all manufactured by ourselves, in our own factory, the largest building in the world used exclusively for the manufacture of Society and Military Goods. We purchase from first hands, either in this country or Europe, all material used by us in making our goods; buy in large quantities, and for cash; our employes are trained to manufacture our special class of goods, and we have every facility for making the best goods at the lowest prices. Special attention is called to our new silk embroidered Aprons and Collars, specialties in Metal Work, new Magic Lanterns with electric and other lights, F. C. Stairs, etc.; also to elegant colored illustrations of Robes for use in the Third.

Letters containing enquiries or orders will have prompt and careful attention. Correspondence solicited.

Address all communications to

THE M. C. LILLEY & CO.,

COLUMBUS, OHIO.

We allow a liberal discount from all prices in this list.

Charts.

We manufacture charts for Lodge Room Instruction, of which we append illustrations on the three pages following.

Chart No. 4665 consists of three degrees, E. A., F. C. and M. M., mounted on canvas, 6x6 feet, with roller at top and bottom.

No. 4666 consists of three charts, each degree on one chart, 32x46 inches, mounted on canvas, with roller at top and bottom.

The emblems on these charts are arranged to follow in the proper order, and conform to the lecture. Illustrations are all beautifully colored.

Every Lodge should possess a set of these charts, and the price, which is but $10.00, brings them within the reach of all.

Any Lodge desiring to examine them, can have either or both sent for inspection by sending an order over seal of the Lodge.

We would call special attention to our No. 4666. It is in a convenient form, each degree being mounted upon a separate sheet, thus enabling the W. Master to exhibit the emblems of the degree being conferred, the sheets of the other two degrees being rolled up and laid away until needed.

Each degree is in map shape, size 32x46 inches, mounted on rollers. The emblems were arranged by an experienced Past Master, having in view a plan by which they follow each other in proper order, conforming admirably to the several lectures. The emblems are all fresh, modern, artistic and elegantly colored. The following are a few of the many testimonials we have received:

GLASGOW, SCOTLAND, ST. MARY'S LODGE, NO. 117.

Gentlemen and Brethren:

I am instructed by the W. Master of the above Lodge to intimate to you that he has just received one of your Masonic Charts in three parts, which has given great satisfaction, and generally admired by all who have seen them, the emblems being such as are easily understood by every member of the craft.

I have the honor to be yours faithfully and fraternally,

JOHN BAIN, Secretary, No. 117.

The M. C. Lilley & Co., Columbus, Ohio: URBANA, OHIO.

The emblems of your new Charts are well arranged, and the Charts are excellently made, being the best I have seen. The price is very low.

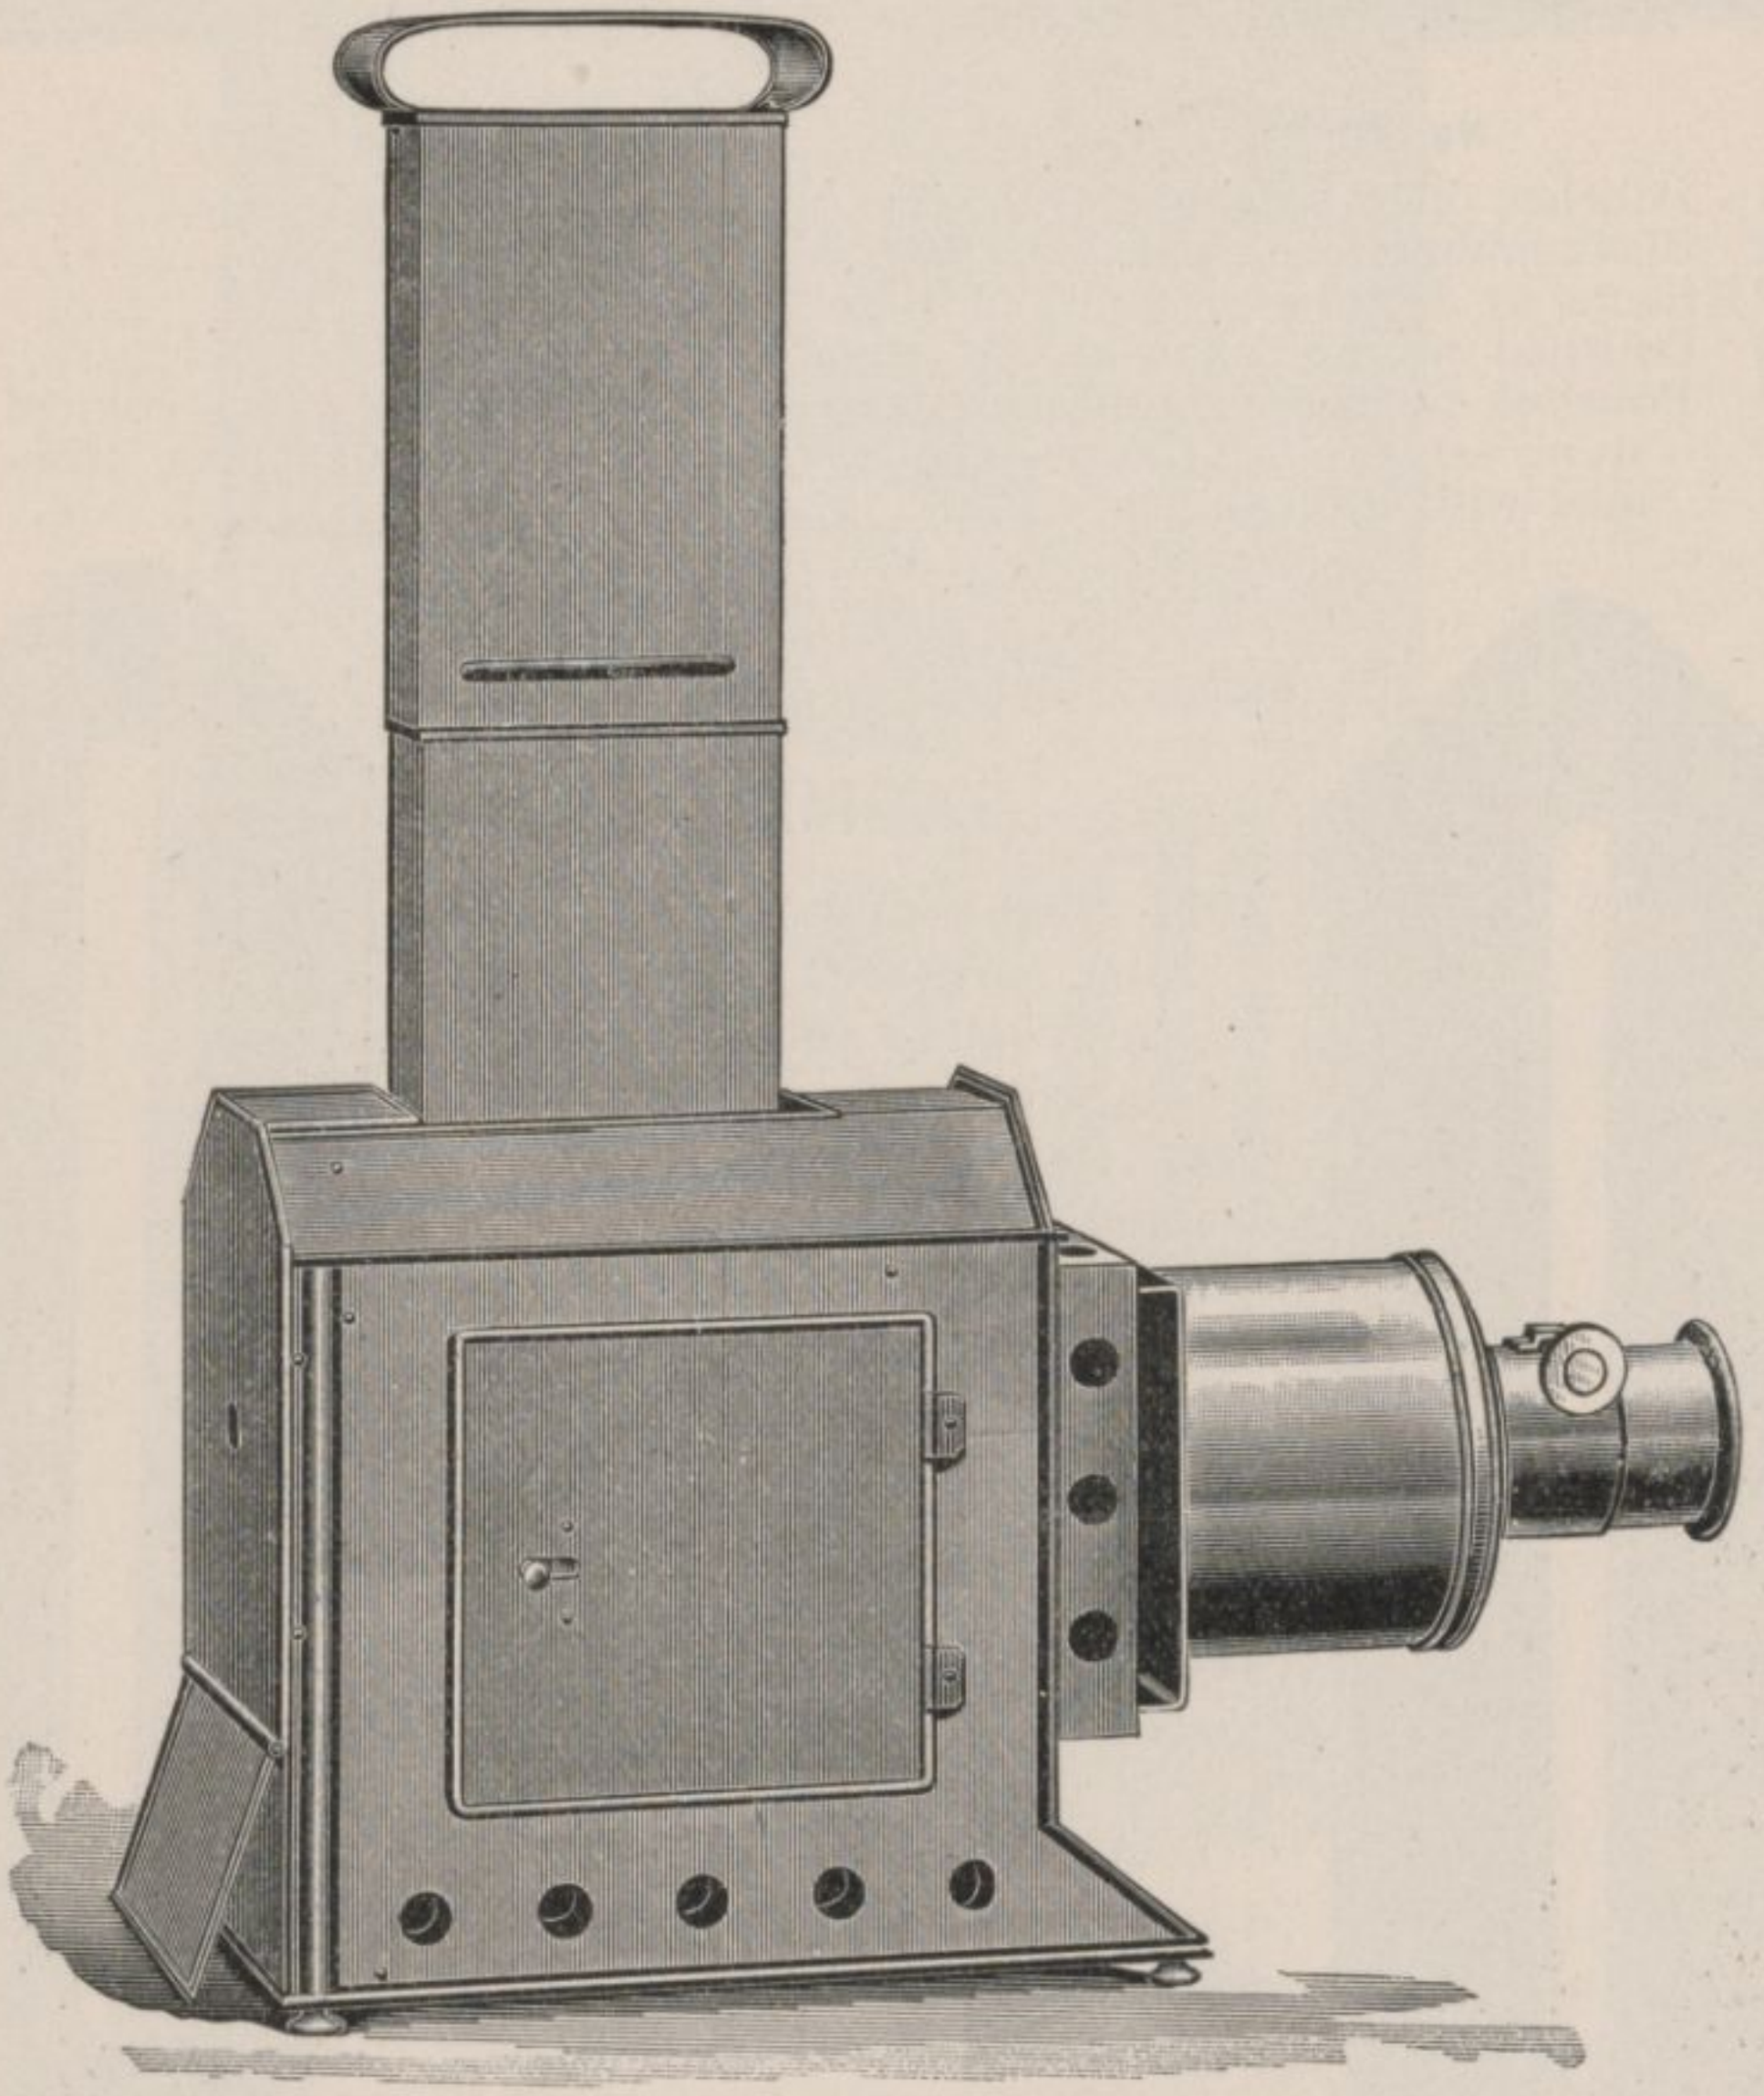
MAGIC LANTERNS.

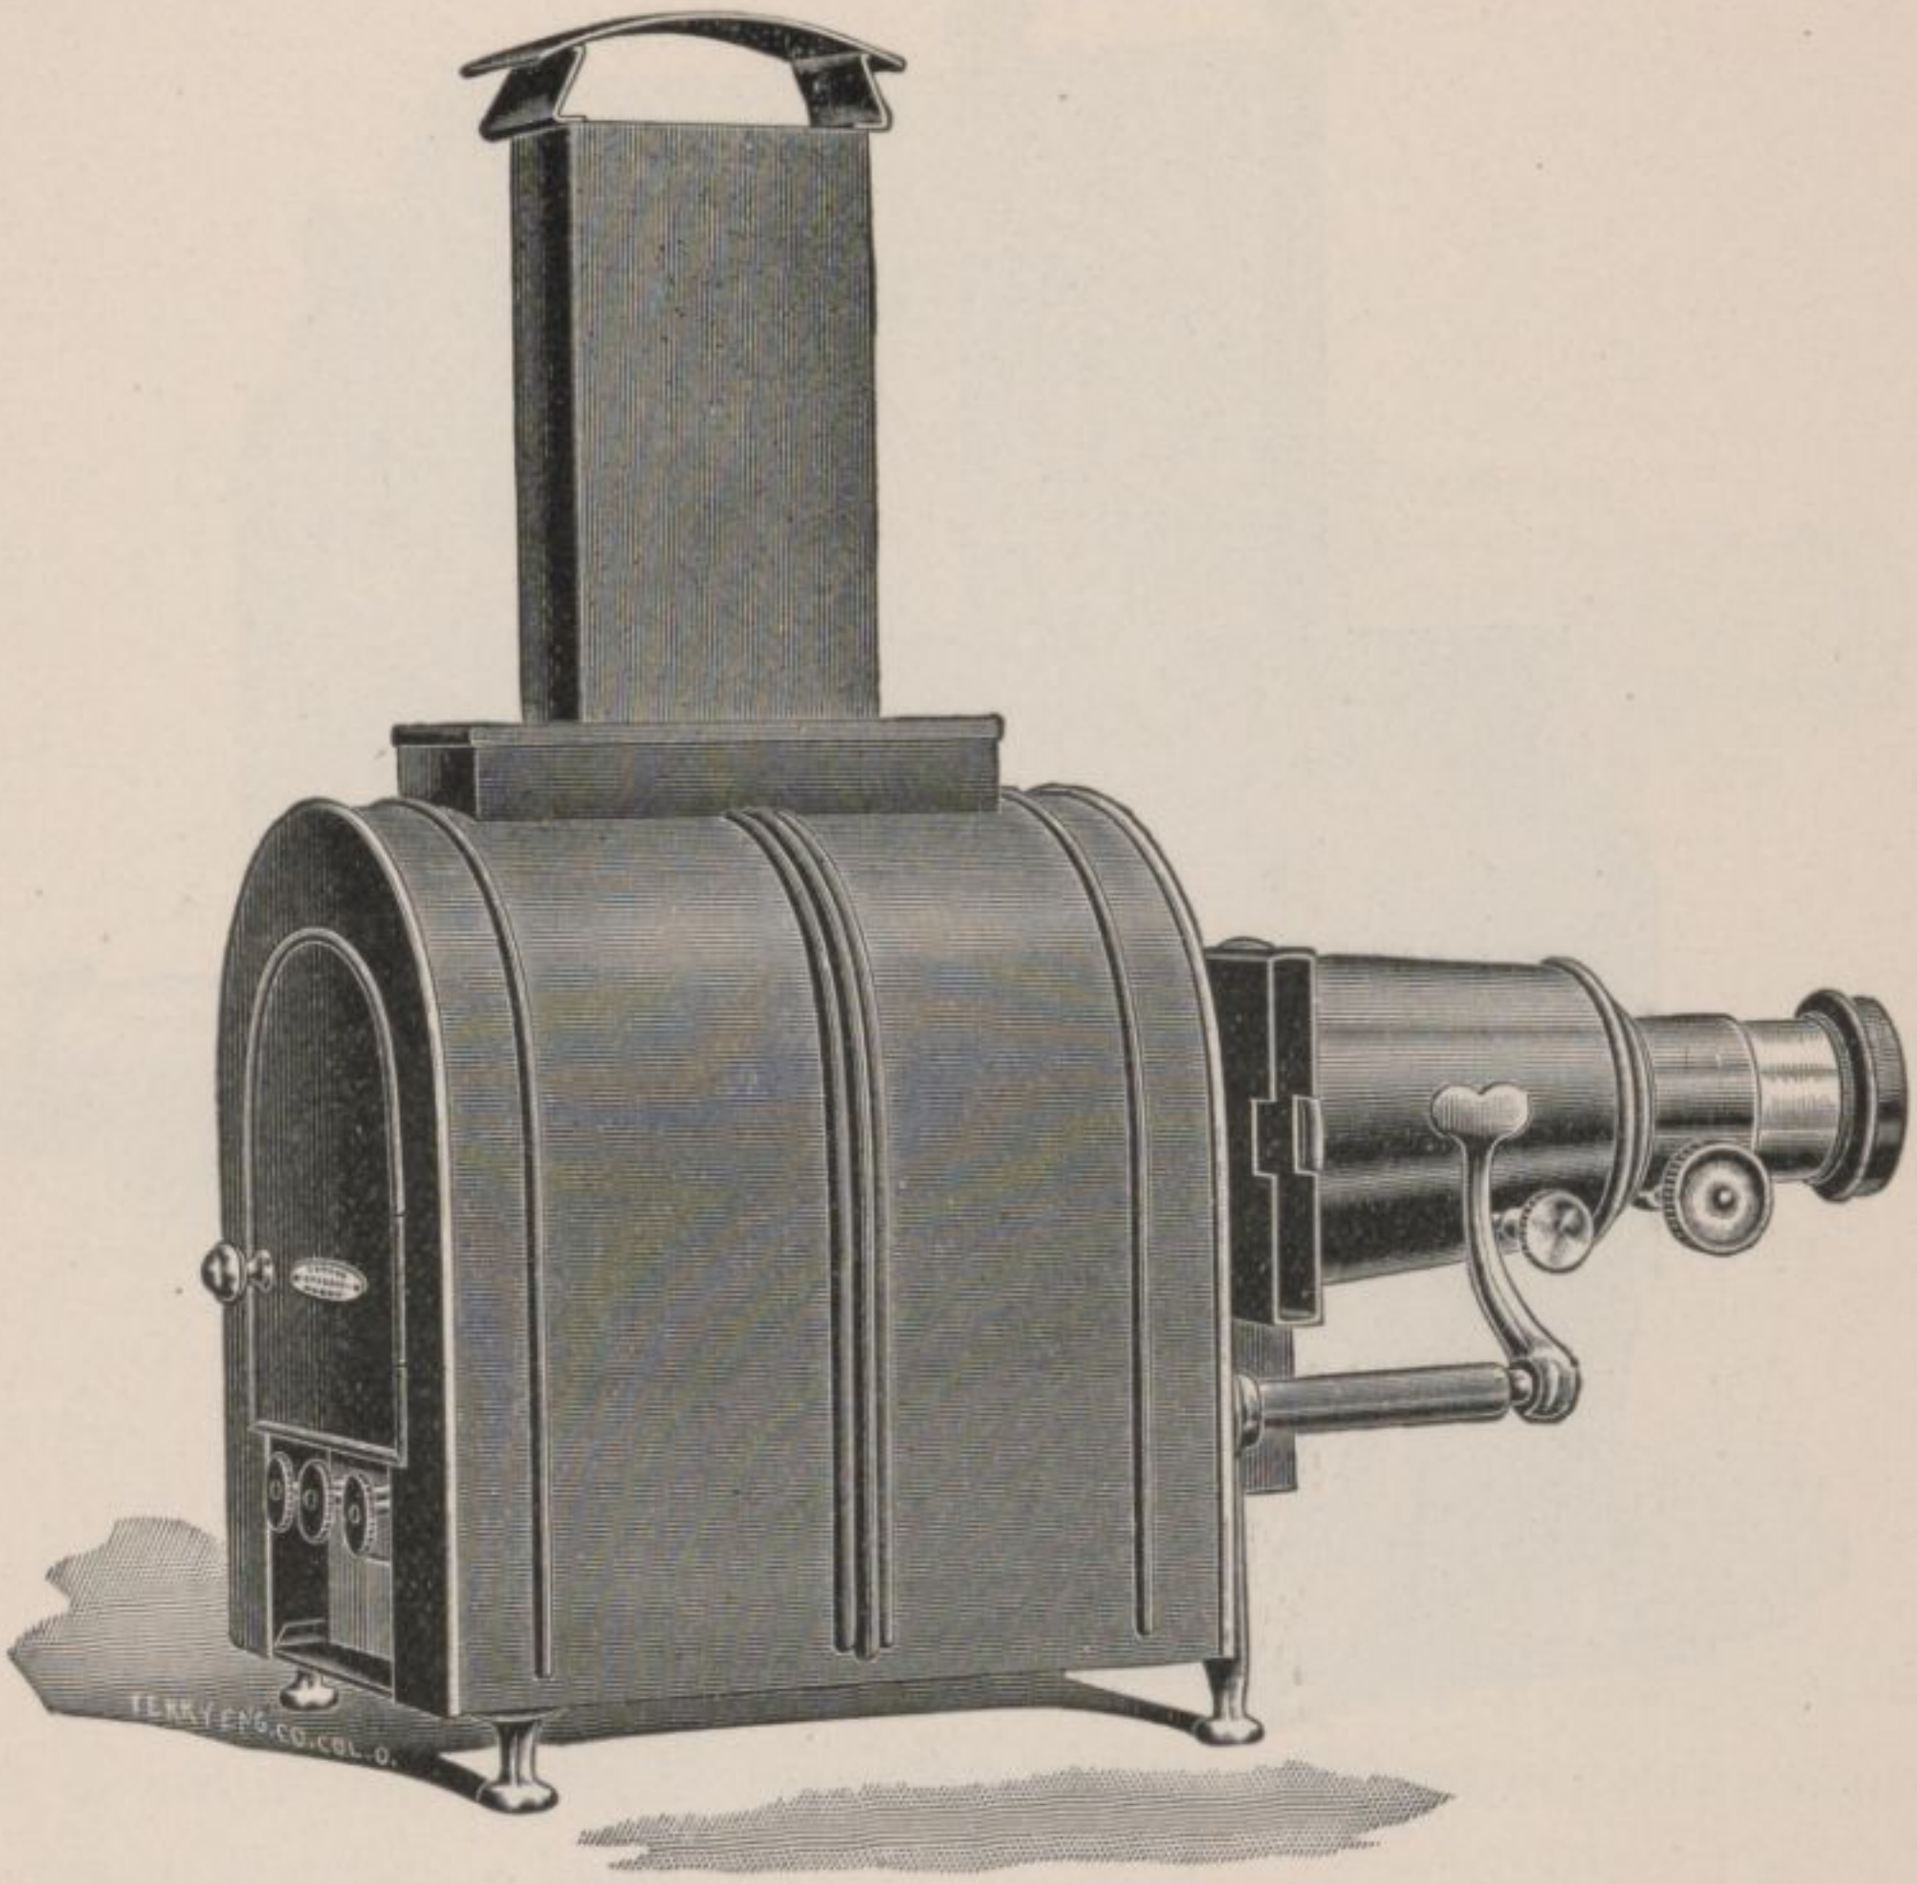
FULL DIRECTIONS SENT WITH EACH LANTERN.



The Masonic Capital Lantern.

The Masonic Capital Magic Lantern is adapted for use in small lodge-rooms, where an inexpensive instrument is desired and not too much is expected of any Lantern of its price. It is substantially made of Russia iron, well ventilated. Is furnished with achromatic objective lenses, with rack and pinion adjustment for focusing, suitable condensing lenses mounted in a brass cell. Good three-wick oil-lamp, the flames regulated by an opening in the rear of the Lantern. It will produce a clear picture from seven to eight feet in diameter when placed about fourteen feet from the screen. Packed in our improved wooden case, upon which the Lantern is placed when in use.

Price, including a white muslin screen eight feet square, but not the slides or pictures (subject to discount)..... $30 00

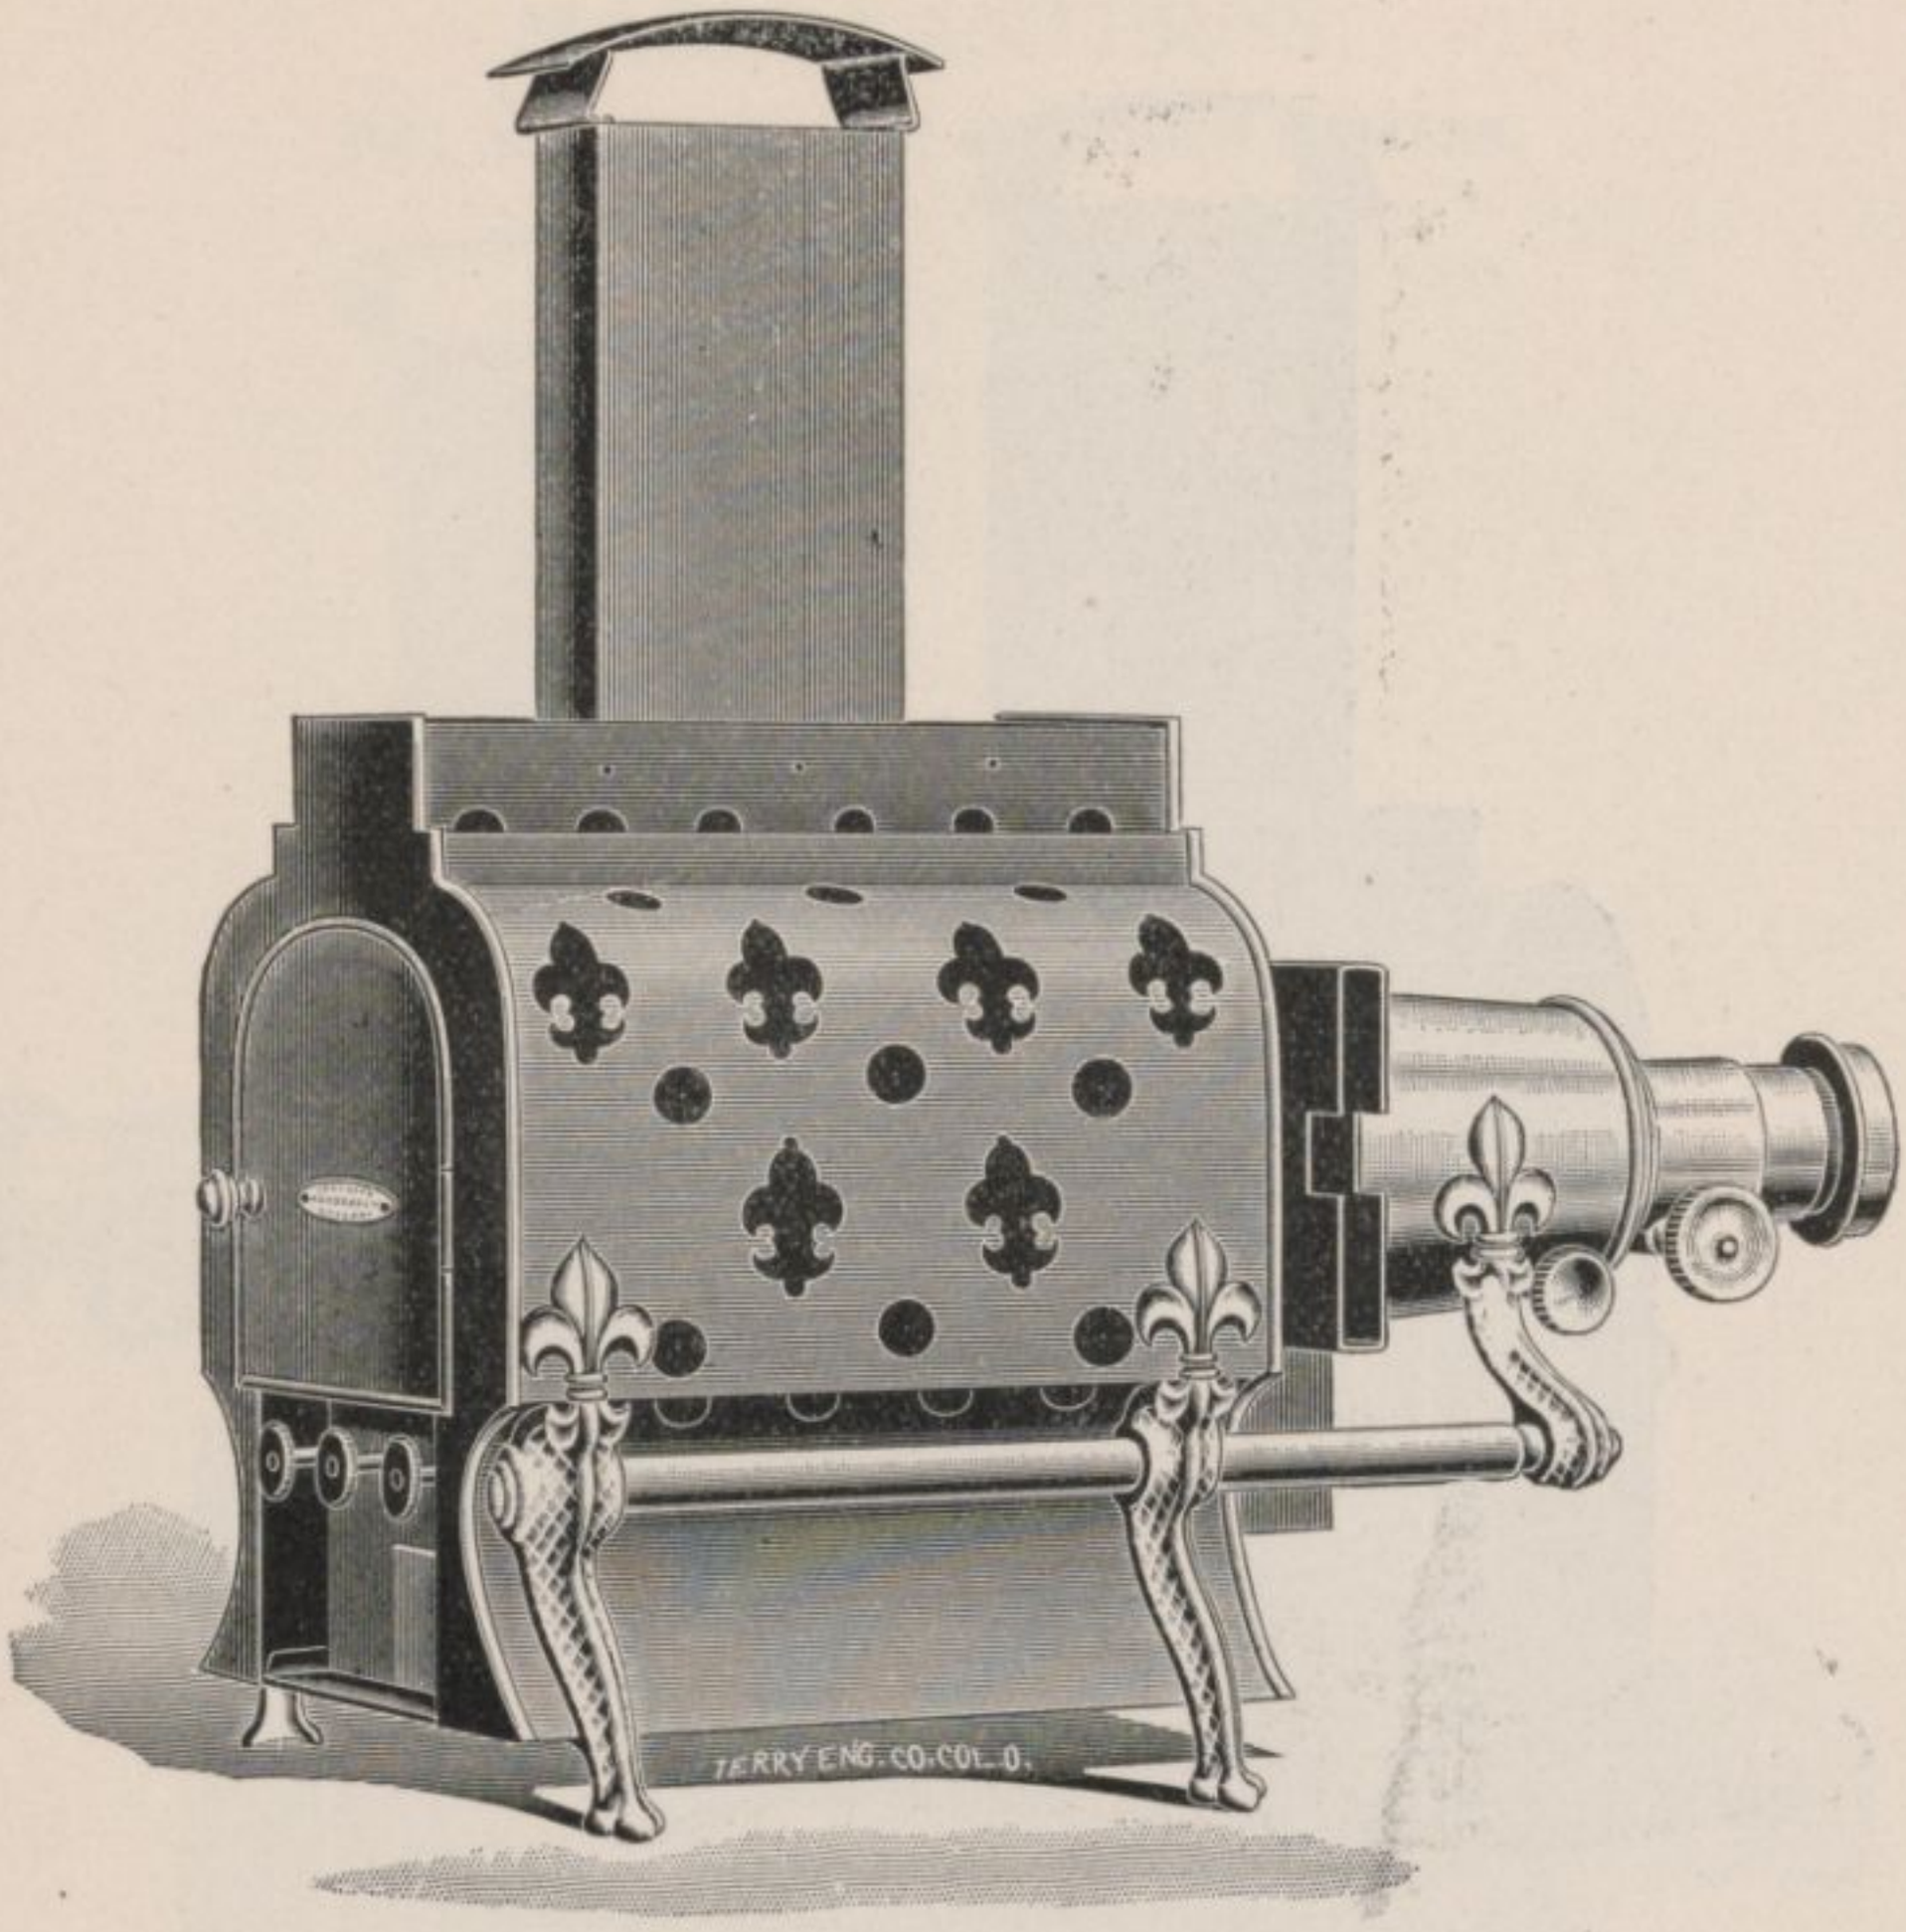


The Masonic Fraternity Magic Lantern.

To meet the want for a medium-priced Lantern, and yet one that will do effective work and give satisfactory service, we have designed the FRATERNITY; the body is substantially constructed of heavy sheet-iron, well ventilated.

It is furnished with the latest improved three-wick oil lamp, the flames of which, by the aid of the highly polished reflector, project a distinct and satisfactory picture eight feet in diameter, high power objective lenses mounted in a lacquered brass tube, four-inch condensing lenses, our latest metal slide holder and rising and falling curtain effect. Furnished with the Lantern is our improved carrying case, which can also be used to place the Lantern upon while in use.

Price, including a bleached muslin screen ten feet square, but not the slides or views (subject to a liberal discount)..... $45 00



The Masonic Ideal Magic Lantern

Is, as its name implies, an Ideal Magic Lantern, with coal oil as its source of light. It has no equal for effective work and ease of manipulation.

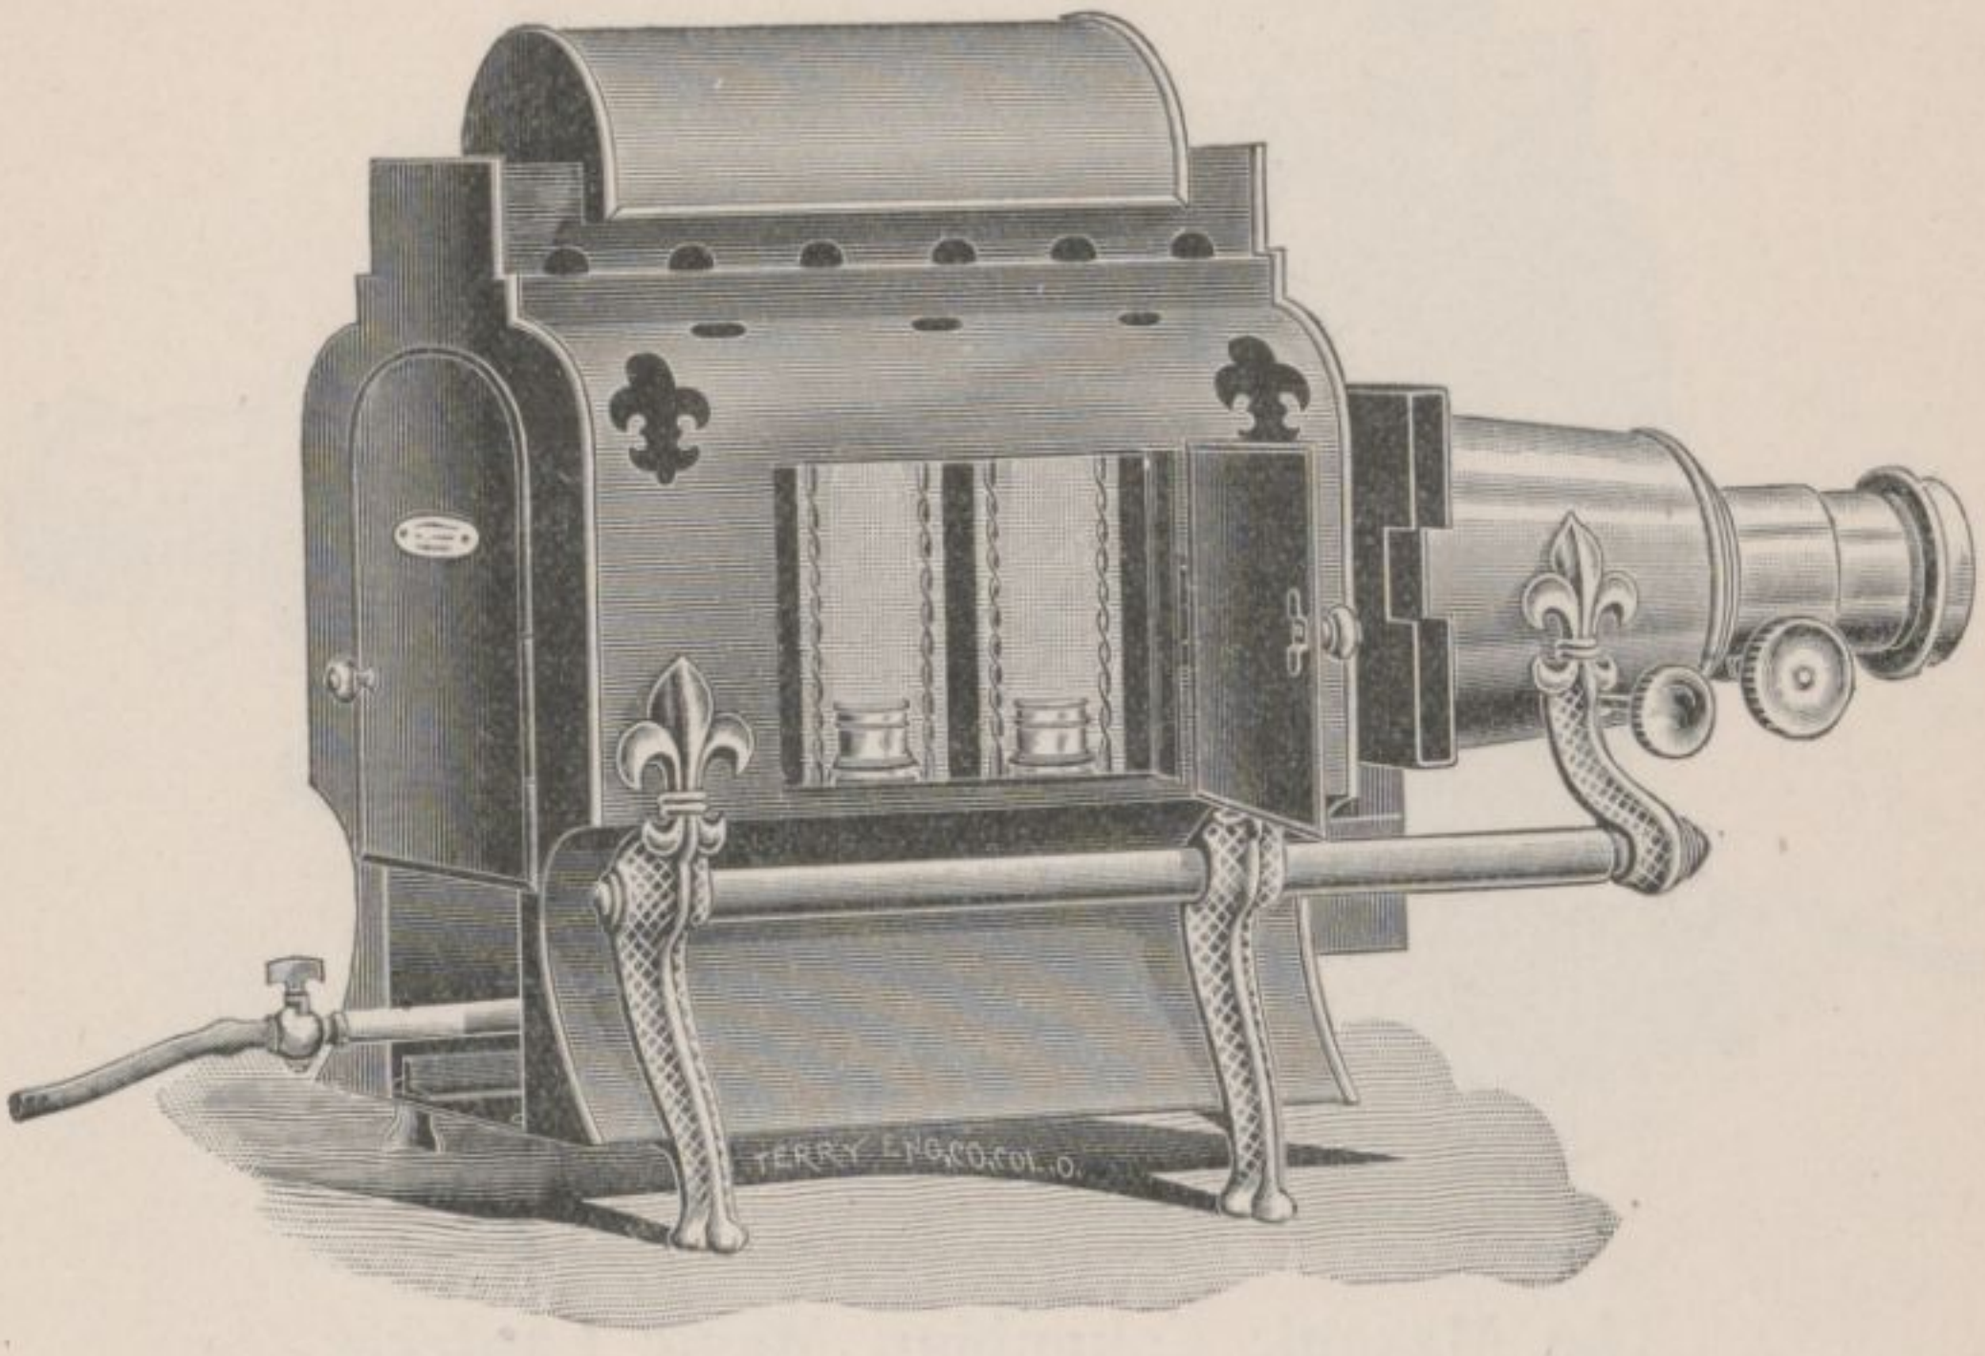
It is made entirely of metal and glass, thus avoiding the use of wood, which by warping and splitting has caused so much annoyance in many Magic Lanterns previously made.

As is shown by the illustration, it is provided with an ornamental perforated jacket to insure ventilation and prevent overheating. The metal hood, supports for body of Lantern, telescopic rods and mountings for lenses are of the best workmanship and all finely nickel-plated. In the metal hood is placed our justly popular curtain effect.

It is provided with our powerful three-wick lamp, in which we insert the justly famed Marshall process wicks. This lamp, with the aid of its finely polished reflector, will project a clearly defined picture eight feet in diameter; it will also project as bright a picture ten or even twelve feet in diameter as any coal oil lamp manufactured. The condensing lenses are four inches in diameter, mounted in the latest and most improved manner. The objective lenses are of high power and best quality.

Packed in a neat case, having a compartment for slides and other accessories, also a convenient arrangement whereby the front of the lid can be raised or lowered, thus raising or lowering the Lantern and causing the picture on the screen to show at a desired elevation. We include a fine muslin screen ten feet square.

Price (which does not include slides) subject to a liberal discount.. $60 00



The Masonic Advance Magic Lantern.

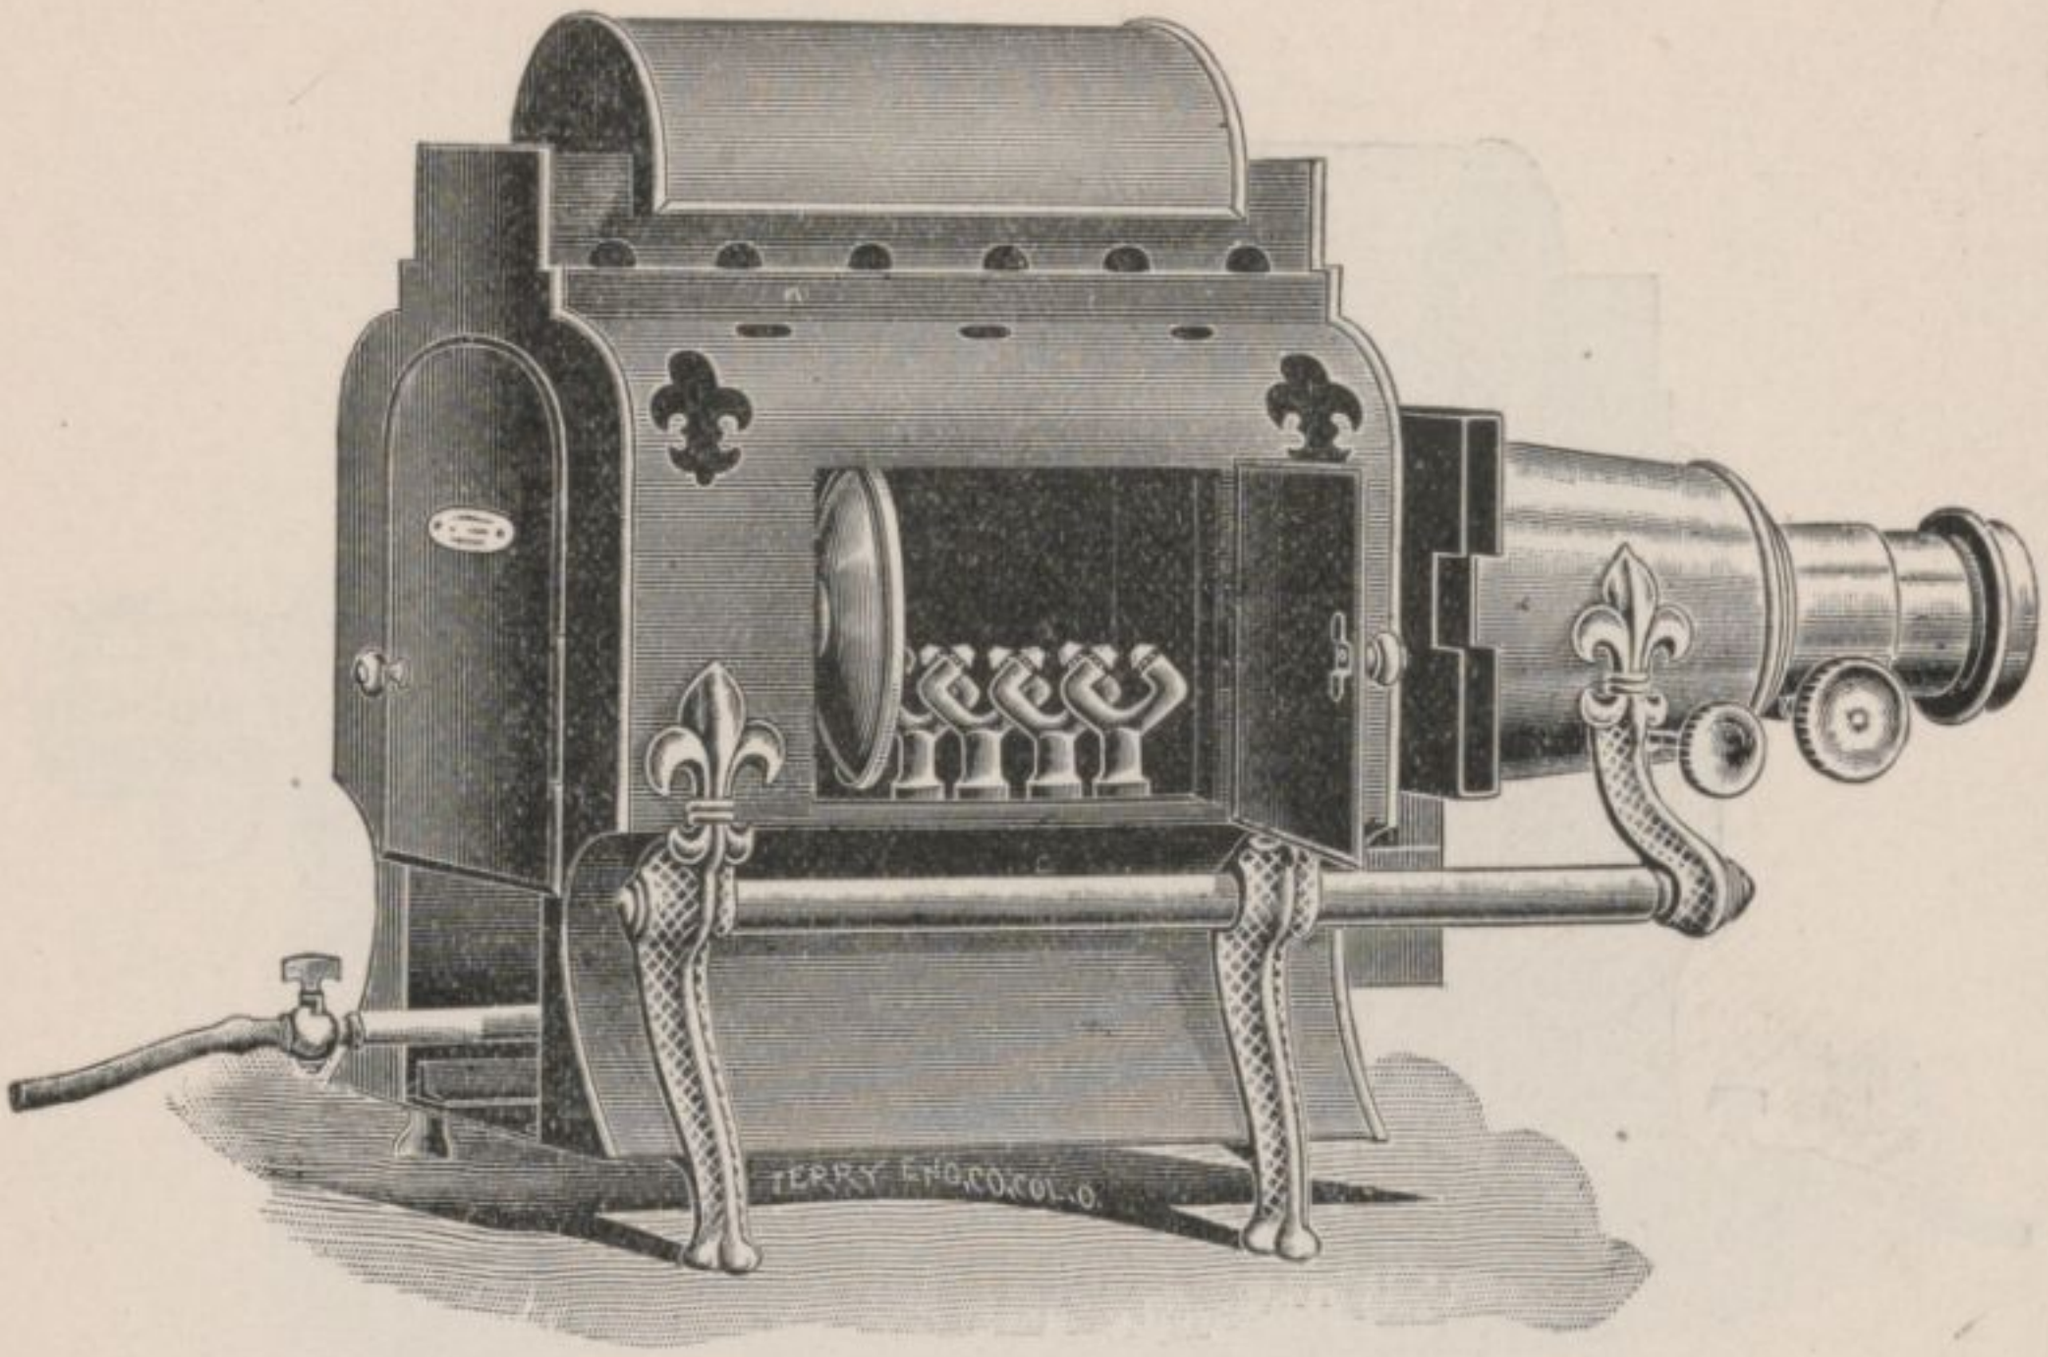
Our frame or body made entirely of metal with perforated jacket is used, as well as our improved metal slide holder, also our convenient curtain effect is placed in hood.

In one side of the body is placed a door which, in the engraving, is shown open so as to display the position occupied by the Duplex Incandescent Gas Burner.

The attachment permits of either a lateral or vertical adjustment of the burner; it also permits the burner to be moved forward and back so that the light may be equally diffused upon the screen. We furnish suitable rubber tubing to enable the Lantern to be operated fifteen feet or less from the gas fixtures; should it be desired to operate the Lantern at a greater distance, additional rubber tubing will be furnished at market rates. We also furnish a pair of gas pliers.

The Masonic Advance Lantern is suitable for halls where a moderate sized picture is desired and for which use it is found to answer a good purpose.

Price, including a ten-foot screen and operating case, but not slides (subject to discount).....$75 00



The Masonic Columbian Magic Lantern.

The Masonic Columbian Magic Lantern is furnished with our improved lantern body with perforated sides, insuring complete ventilation, reducing the heat to a minimum amount.

In the nickel-plated hood is placed the desirable shutter to produce the effect upon the screen of a rising and falling curtain.

High Power Objective Lenses and four-inch condensing lenses, all in nickel-plated mountings.

The illuminant used in the Columbian is Acetylene Gas, generated in the best form of Automatic Generator and burned in an attachment using four double burners, and owing to the great brilliancy of the light, its simplicity, its ease of operation, and its safety, it is a most desirable light in halls where electricity is not used. The attachment connected with the burners permits of their position being readily changed so as to center the light in the focal axis of the several lenses.

Complete and simple directions accompany the Lantern, enabling a person to make acetylene gas and operate the Columbian Lantern with ease and pleasure.

Furnished with the Lantern is an Acetylene Gas Generator, a duck-covered case made especially to operate the Lantern upon, and also to contain the Lantern, and a fine ten-foot bleached muslin screen.

Price (which does not include slides).....$100 00

The Masonic Peerless Magic Lantern.

To those organizations having the advantage of the electric light we have an admirable instrument to offer in The Peerless Magic Lantern, where the operator has no knowledge of electricity.

Our ventilated sheet-iron body is used, having a door placed in one of the sides, which when open discloses the recenty invented 150 candle-power incandescent electric lamp.

The lamp and attachment are operated from the rear; upon the door are placed binding posts and a switch to enable the operator to turn the current on and off without leaving the Lantern. These lamps can be used on both the direct and alternating current.

The Peerless Lantern is fitted with our new hood with curtain effect, high-power or one-quarter size objective lenses, 4⅛-inch condensing lenses.

Price, including a bleached muslin screen ten feet square, our combined operating and carrying case, complete (not including slides). $85 00

The Masonic American Magic Lantern.

The above illustration exhibits our latest and best form of Magic Lantern, using as an illuminant the modern Hand-feed Electric Arc Lamp, furnishing the brightest light yet invented for Magic Lantern purposes.

The lamp is enclosed in a suitable cylindrical sheet-iron hood. The nickel-plated frame work supports two pairs of parallel telescopic rods; the lower pair of rods permits the lamp to be pulled away from the sheet-iron hood to renew the carbons, etc.; the use of the upper pair of rods is to pull forward the objective lenses, etc., for the purpose of partially focusing the picture and for the easy removal of the condensing lenses.

The American Magic Lantern is furnished with our improved hand-feed arc lamp.

Four and one-eighth-inch condensing lenses, one-quarter size or high-power objective lenses, metal slide holder, rising and falling curtain effect.

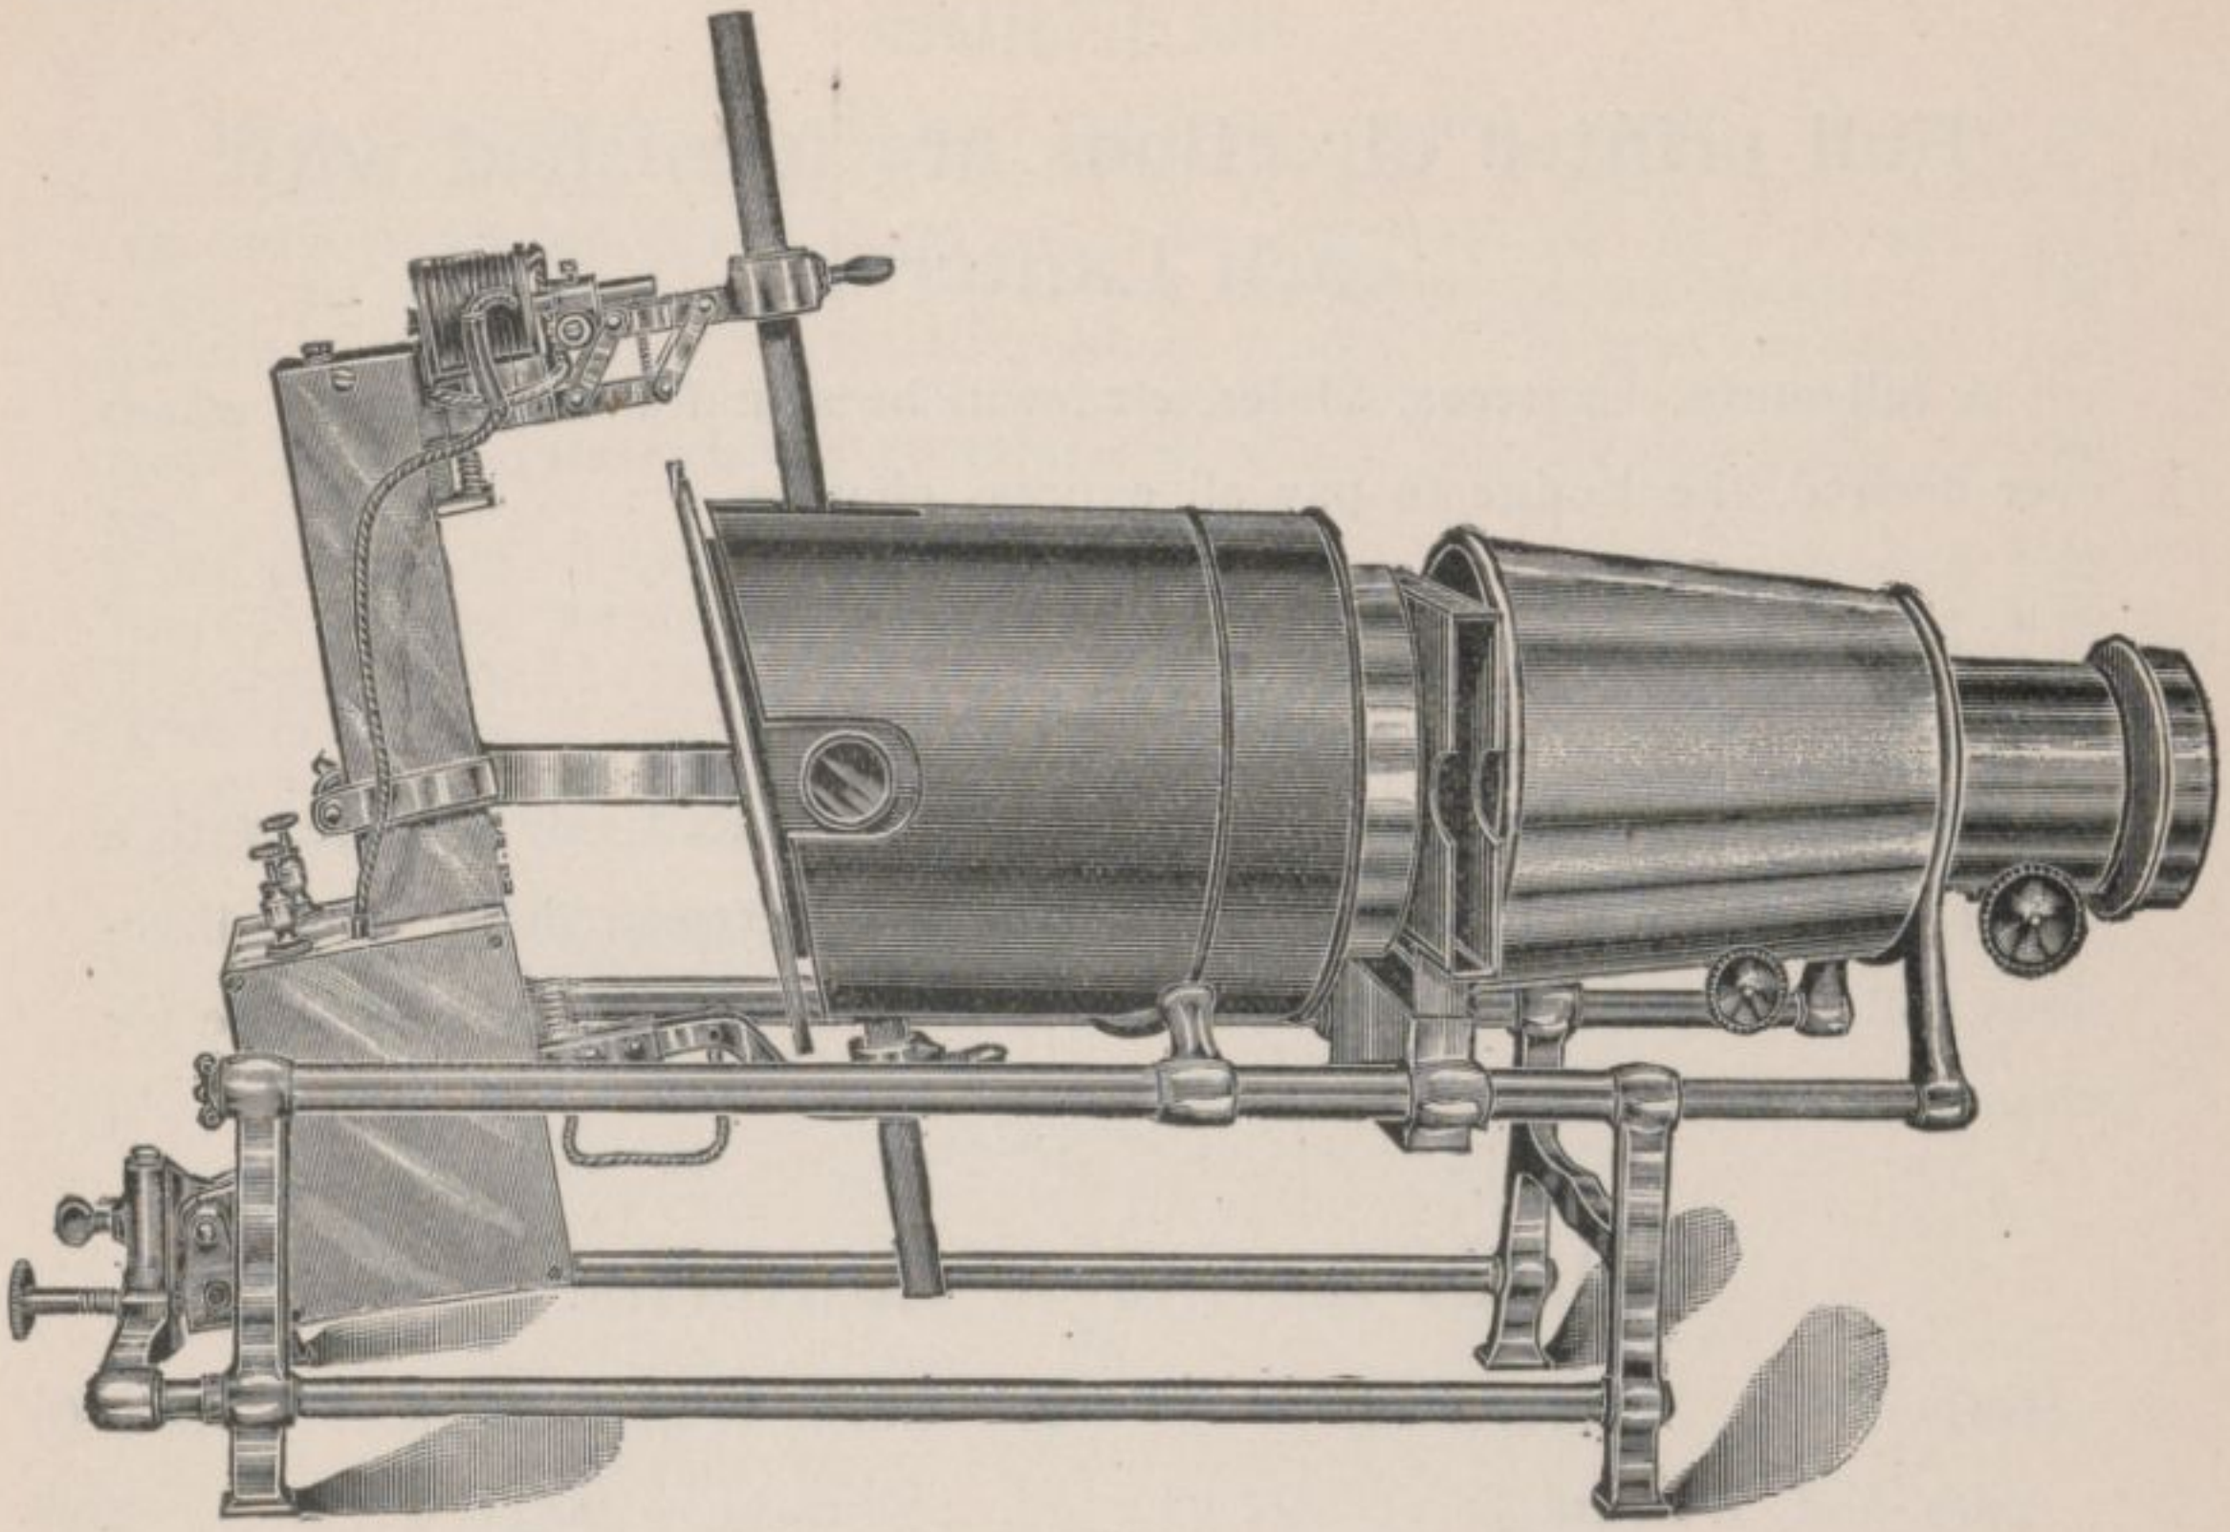
The rheostat furnished with the Lantern is of the most compact type. It is not desirable to place the rheostat at or near the Lantern; the rheostat, from its nature, radiates a large amount of heat, and, if an operator has to work in its immediate locality he will find it uncomfortably warm. To successfully and satisfactorily operate the American Lantern furnished by us, does not require any further knowledge of electricity than to follow the easily understood directions accompanying the Lantern.

In ordering, specify whether direct or alternating current is used, also the voltage. This information can be furnished by the electric company furnishing the current.

Price, including a Rheostat, a knife switch, our combined carrying and operating case, a bleached muslin screen ten feet square (not including slides or pictures).....$100 00

Price of the American Magic Lantern, as described, excepting that Medium or one-half size objective lenses and four and one-half-inch condensing lenses, and a screen sixteen feet square are used. 125 00

Price of the American Magic Lantern when the Moderate or two-third size objective lenses, four and on-half-inch condensing lenses, and a screen sixteen feet square are used..... 145 00



The Masonic Imperial Magic Lantern.

The frame of the handsome apparatus composing the Imperial Magic Lantern is substantially made and finely nickel-plated, by the use of telescopic rods the different parts of the lantern are rendered accessible.

Its source of light is the most recent and satisfactory Automatic Arc Lamp manufactured; it is unequaled for steadiness in operation, noiselessness and for the small amount of attention required.

It will be noticed that the carbons of both our Hand-feed and Automatic Electric Arc Lamps are inclined at an angle of about thirty degrees from the vertical so as to avoid two separate sources of light, as when the carbons are vertically arranged rays of light emanate from the negative as well as the positive carbon, but when inclined the bright spot on the negative carbon is not presented towards the lenses, while the full power of the light of the upper or positive carbon passes freely through the lenses. It is impracticable to construct an automatic arc lamp to satisfactorily use on any but the direct current. Adjustable rheostat of the best quality. Four and one-eighth-inch condensing lenses, one-quarter size high-power objective lenses, metal slide holder, also curtain effect.

In ordring inform us what the voltage is of the current in the hall, which information can be furnished by the electric company furnishing the current.

Price, including a Rheostat, a knife switch, combined carrying and operating case, a bleached muslin screen ten feet square (price does not include slides or pictures).....$150 00

SCREENS.

In making screens we use only the best bleached muslin. They are so made that over eight feet of the center of the screen is seamless, thus avoiding showing a seam in the center and most important part of a picture. All edges are made double and each corner has quadruple thicknesses of the material, insuring the greatest strength at points of the greatest strain. In each corner of all the screens and at suitable intervals in the edges of the larger sizes we place strong grommets in which suitable guy ropes can be tied.

Acme Screen Frame.

After experimenting with many forms of screen frames we invented the "Acme," illustrated herewith. It is not patented. Any good carpenter can make it, but it will be found less expensive to buy it complete of us, as we have special machinery to turn the hard wood rods to fit the ends of the rods in the polished brass sockets, etc. We also make them in quantities, thus bringing the cost down to a minimum amount.

By the use of a wall and a chair one man can easily erect it in a few minutes, but it is better that two men erect it, one on each side.

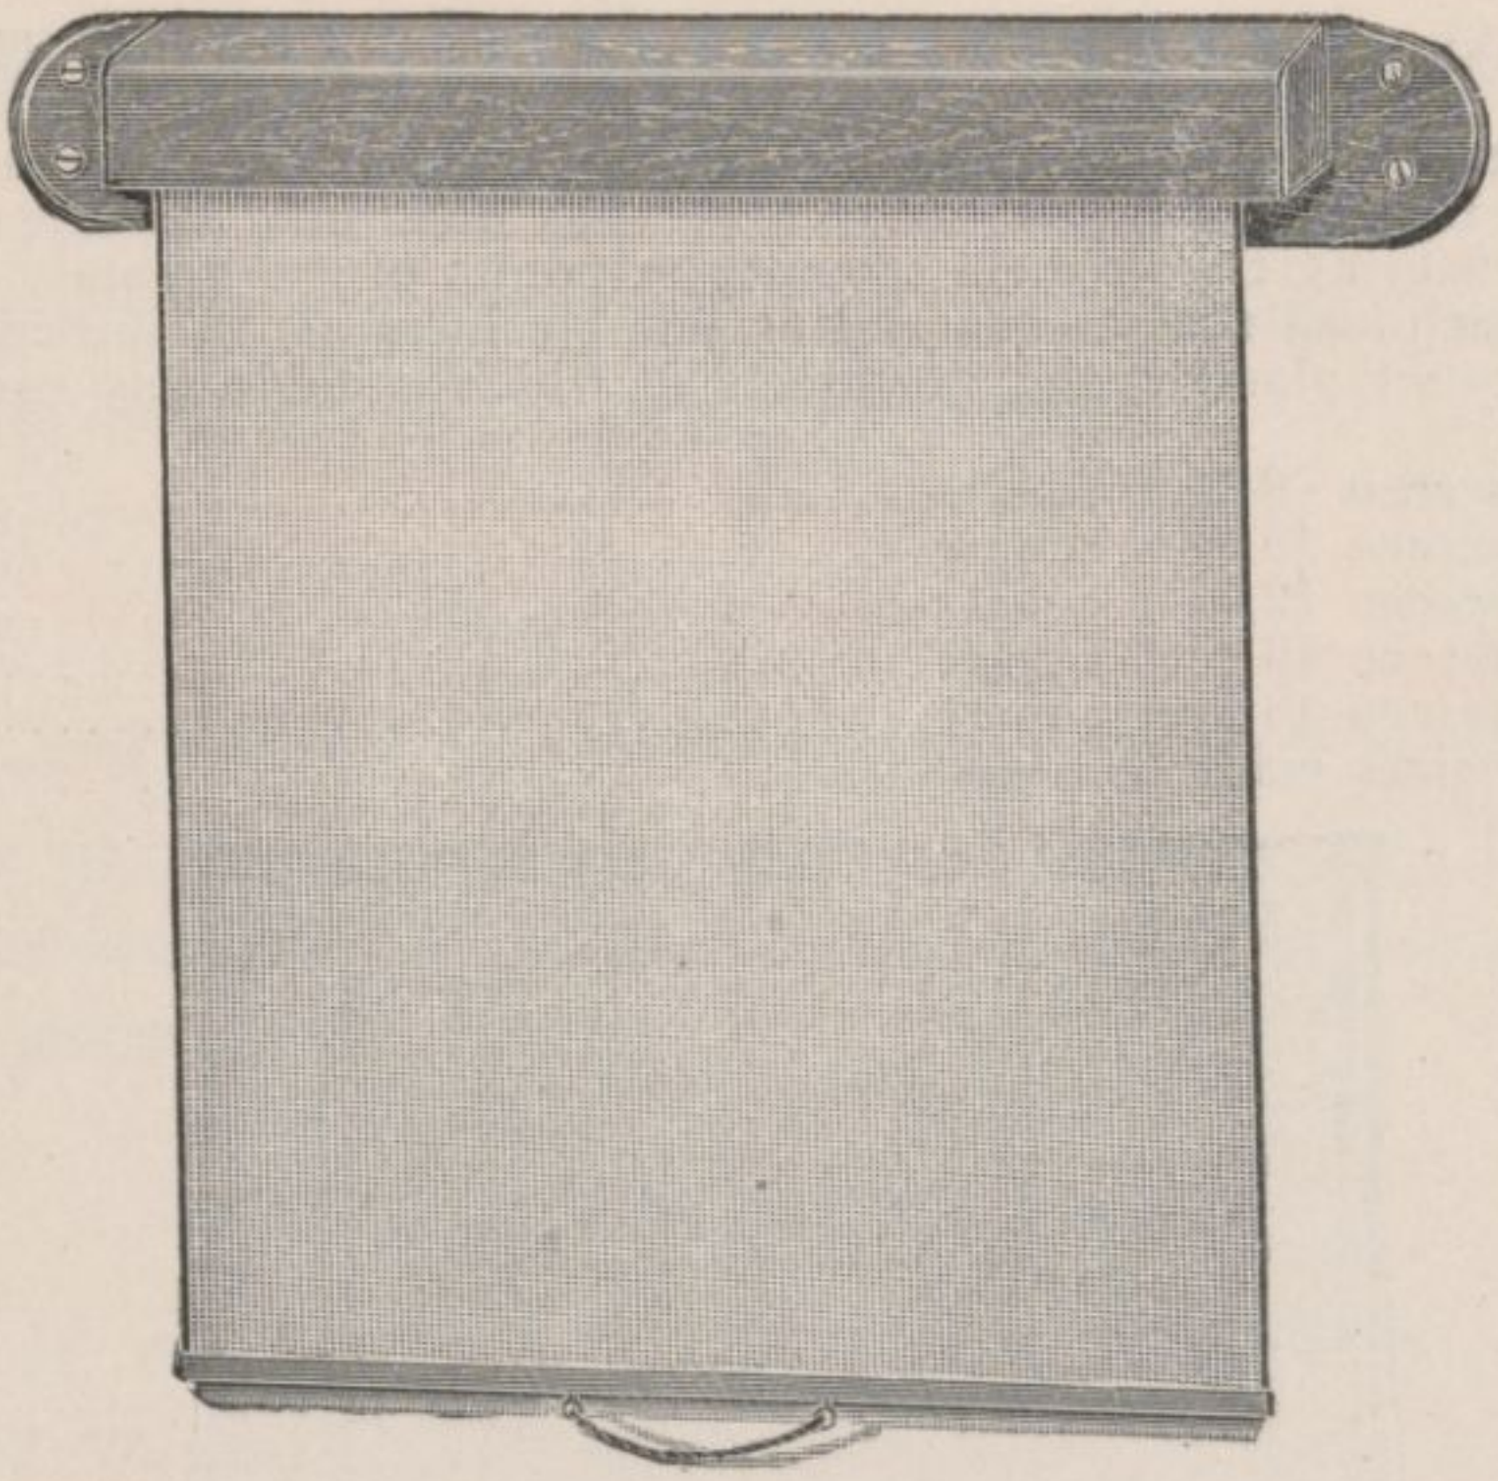
In using this screen frame it can be placed anywhere in a hall without doing injury to walls, wood-work, carpet or floor, as no nails, screw eyes or hooks are needed.

It can be used with a Magic Lantern in front of it projecting a picture against the screen as is usually done, or, by placing the Magic Lantern behind the screen, the picture showing through it. When showing a picture through a screen it should be saturated with water by means of a wet sponge tied to the end of a stick.

With the screen is furnished a canvas roll with straps and buckles. The screen can be readily taken apart and placed in the roll, occupying a space 55 inches long, 8 inches wide, and weighing but 21 pounds.

The Acme Screen Frame will answer for a screen 8, 10 or 12 feet square, and are kept in stock. Frames for larger sizes made to order.

Price complete (not including a screen).....$13 50



Hartshorn's Spring Roller, Screen and Case.

To those Lodges so situated that they can have the screen remain permanently in one place, on a wall near the ceiling, or among the flies back of the proscenium of a stage; we offer a very convenient arrangement, consisting of a Hartshorn Spring tin roller supporting a bleached muslin screen, both contained in a wooden case, which serves to protect the screen from dust and dirt.

The wooden case is fastened in position by nails or screws, and by attaching a string in the loop at the bottom of the screen, or by use of a hook on the end of a pole the screen can be lowered and raised on the same principle that window curtains are so universally operated.

We can stain the wooden case to correspond with the wood finish of the room, but unless otherwise directed we will send it stained a cherry color.

Blue Lodge Costumes.

We make a specialty of the manufacture of Costumes for Officers and Fellow Crafts in the Lodge, and present a very fine assortment of colored illus=trations of elegant Robes for use in Working the Degrees. Our designs are all new and appropriate, the Costumes are made of various qualities of material and the range in price enables every Lodge to pur=chase according to its financial ability.

In arranging our various designs the question of convenience in robing and disrobing has been given very serious consideration, and the wearer will have no more trouble in using our Robes than in using his ordinary wearing apparel.

WE WILL SEND ANY SELECTION FROM THIS LIST ON APPROVAL, to be examined by the Officers and Brethren before the purchase is made. This method of purchasing these goods is very satis=factory, because it allows a careful examination to be made before arriving at a decision.

Any information that may be desired will be furnished on request. Correspondence solicited.
