NOTICE.

The Minutes of our Grand Lodge are very late in making their appearance this year, for reasons which we deem proper to state:

They were all in print, and nearly ready for binding, when a great fire occurred, by which the office in which the work was being done was destroyed.

By this fire the Minutes, the copy, and one of our Grand Lodge Record Books were entirely consumed.

To reproduce all this matter, under such circumstances, has been a great task, and this must serve as an apology for any imperfections that may appear.

J. C. CORBIN, Grand Secretary.

GRAND MASTER'S ADDRESS.

[The following is that portion of the Grand Master's address which relates to his official labors. The remainder of the address the Grand Master was unable to reproduce, as he had preserved no copy. As stated elsewhere, our Minutes, when just completed, were destroyed by fire. The record of business transacted, being kept in duplicate, could easily be reproduced. The documents, such as the Grand Master's address and the report on foreign correspondence, are substitutes for the original papers.—GRAND SECRETARY.]

FORREST CITY.

April 11. Visited Hiram Lodge, No. 17, Forrest City. She has a membership of seventeen. The W. M. failed to summons his Lodge as ordered, therefore only seven members were out. We had a pleasant talk with them, after which we perused the books and found that they were progressing finely financially. They promised me that they would build a Lodge room. On account of the absence of the Secretary I could not get a report.

BRINKLEY.

April 12. Visited Providence Lodge, No. 36, at Brinkley. She is not doing so well. There seems to be some discontent, which has had the effect of retarding the progress of the Lodge. I do hope that Bro. Weaver considers the importance of unity. Take up courage and go ahead, and let the beautiful light of the institution shine into your soul to the end that the Lodge may go on to perfection. She has all the records required to be kept up by the Grand Lodge.

Expended for Lodge purposes	$ 94 05
Expended for Charter	75 85
Total	$169 90	$202 50

AUGUSTA.

April 14. Attempted to visit Johnson Lodge No. 4 again, but as usual the W. M., Bro. Jas. McElwee, received the notice but said nothing to his Lodge about meeting. Two members met me. After a great deal of coaxing, I got the Secretary to let me get a partial report, which he said was correct.

Paid out for Lodge purposes	$ 28 95
Paid out for Charity	12 50
Total	$ 41 45	$ 54 00

I am compelled to say that Johnson Lodge, No. 4, is a very trifling concern to say the least

NEWPORT.

April 16. Visited St. Mark's Lodge No. 7, and found it getting on very poorly. She is all to pieces, as usual. The W. M. has left and the Wardens are contentious, and about two-thirds of the Lodge are dissatisfied and refuse to pay dues; so that is the way they stand.

Expended for Lodge purposes	$ 50 00
For charity	1 00
Total	$ 51 00	$ 67 50

The cause of the trouble is buried money. Removed Bro. S. H. Pitts on account of absence and placed Bro. Silas Woods, P. M., in the position.

SEARCY.

April 18. Visited Eureka Lodge, No. 10, Searcy, and found it in nearly the same condition as last year, but Bro. Turner has a good deal of nerve and vim and will succeed. They all seem to be of one mind, seeing who can best work and best agree.

ARGENTA.

April 20. Visited this Lodge, and it is just alive. You can scarcely discern life in her. I think it a doubtful case as to her ever recovering, although we hope she will come out all right. The W. M., Bro. Green says that he has done the best he could under the circumstances. He has had the misfortune to lose his wife this year. Peace to her ashes. He has none of the records in his Lodge required to be kept by the Grand Lodge, but says he will get them.

LITTLE ROCK.

April 21. Visited Trinity Lodge, No. 33, and just did get to meet it. They refused to meet as ordered, and they seem to think that they have a right to dictate to the Grand Master as to when they ought to meet and when not to, etc., but after an explanation by Bro. Barber I forgave them. He promised not to be guilty of the act any more. The following is a report for two years.

May 2. Visted Richmond Lodge. For once this Lodge met as ordered, and had as nice a set of books as I ever saw in a Lodge. I must congratulate the Worshipful Master and Secretary on the manner in which their books have been kept. According to agreement all three Lodges met together.

April 22. Visited Tuscan Lodge, No. 34. It is in a healthy condition and seems to be getting on all right. Some of the brethren complain of some of the brethren being dishonest. She has none of the records required to be kept by the Grand Lodge. Suspended the Secretary, J. W. Mason, for refusing to obey orders of the Grand Master in meeting and making out his report. Appointed Edward Higgins to act as Secretary.

MORRILTON.

April 23. Visited Silver Trowel Lodge No. 9, Morrilton. The Worthy Master of this Lodge had left without notifying me of changing his post-office, hence he failed to get his notice. Therefore, the Lodge knew nothing of my coming; but through

Bro. Arlington, our S. W., I got enough of the brothers together to have a meeting. We had a nice time; healed one of the national compacts (W. C. Cook), who found out that he was on the wrong track. His earnest desire was like Bro. Collins, to get right, so I set him right, and he went on his way rejoicing. Report to be forwarded. W. C. Cook is due $5.00, to be forworded by May 15.

April 25. Visited Triangle Lodge No. 24. This Lodge is progressing finely, and bids fair to become the finest Lodge in the near future. I did some work for the brethren and passed on.

DARDANELLE.

April 26. Visited King Solomon Lodge No. 30, Dardanelle. I was greatly surprised to find this Lodge so neatly housed in a fine hall, well lighted and nicely furnished and well ventilated, at a cost of $35.00. The lot was donated by Bro. Jack Bailey, and is worth $100—a neat gift to the institution.

April 29. Visited Widow's Son Lodge No. 3. I met this Lodge. She is just about the same—just moving along, not making much progress; but the brothers say that if I will excuse them this time they will do better in future. Bros. Washington, Dean and Bonner brought a carriage around in the afternoon, and we had a fine ride all over the city, showing the improvements of their city. I never saw so much improvement in a place in so short a time. I healed Jerry Harlin, a compact.

May 3. Visited Prince Hall Lodge No. 27. This Lodge is doing admirably well. I feel proud of this Lodge. Bro. Rutherford is still there, hammering away, looking as fresh as a boy twenty-one years old. May the Lord protect the old man, and let his last days be his best, and his life be prolonged upon the earth. The Lodge met promptly at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, transacted our business and got away from the hall before night.

May 4. Visited Electric Light Lodge No. 45. This Lodge is rubbing along slowly, but the brethren seem to be of one mind—seeing who can best work and best agree. We bespeak for her a bright future. The Secretary is one of those brothers who thinks 10 o'clock time enough to get into his station. I taught him a lesson that I don't think he will forget soon—that 7 o'clock is the time to meet.

May 5. Visited Corner Stone Lodge No. 51. This Lodge is all right I helped Bro. Middlebrooks confer First and Second degrees. She has the maps, charts and tools, and a fair prospect. She is located in a fine part of the county.

May 6. Visited Fairfield Lodge No. —. This Lodge is progressing poorly. Bro. Middlebrooks made a few mistakes in setting this Lodge up, but I have every confidence in her, and would suggest that we give her a chance, and she will come out all right. Her financial condition is poor.

May 9. Visited Corinthian Lodge No. 53. I met this Lodge. They are in as good shape as could be expected, being young and inexperienced. She has a good lodge-room, and regalias all paid for. The Worshipful Master, Bro. J. H. Hines, left the Lodge some time since without notifying the Grand Master or Grand Secretary of his removal; he also refused to assemble his Lodge at the time of meeting after receiving my notice, for which I suspended him, and notified him to meet the Grand Lodge. I placed Bro. M. P. M. M., and conferred the Third degree.

PINE BLUFF.

May 10. Visited Eastern Light Lodge No. 6. This Lodge seems to be standing just where she was last year. The members seem to be low-spirited. They are not doing a great deal. I tried with all the power within me to get the brethren to build, etc. She has only thirty-nine members, and twelve were out.

Amount received from all sources		$225 90

On May 11 I intended to visit Ionic Lodge No. 54, but did not do so because I was informed that they were not working, for the reason that they had no hall or place to meet. They were a lot of compacts. They were healed last year, and promised to build a hall, but they have not done so. I hope the Grand Lodge will look after those brethren, and not let them go astray.

May 13. Visited New Era Lodge No. 10. This Lodge is in a ramble, as usual—fussing. Half of the brothers wanted to withdraw on account of dissatisfaction, etc. I think the best thing to do is to let them alone until they get tired of their foolishness and settle down to pure Masonic principles. The Secretary, Bro. Jas. Stearns, refused to make a report, or obey the notice issued by the Grand Master. I did not suspend him, on account of the brethren stating that he had met with some misfortune in being burned out, etc.

May 20. Was to have visited Silver Moon Lodge No. 15, but did not get to meet that body. Bro. Stephenson.....

May 21. Visited Evergreen Lodge No. 29. This Lodge is safely housed in her new hall. They went in with the A. M. E. Church and built over the church a nice little square room, and have it neatly furnished. Well done for Bro. Boyd and others. It cost them about $100.

May 25. Visited St. Luke's Lodge No. 23. This Lodge is in a prosperous condition, and has a very nice building started. Bro. Mitchell says that he will have it ready to meet in by the first of November, and remarked that he would be glad to have the Grand Lodge meet there, but he was afraid the town could not feed them. Peace and harmony seems to prevail within their walls.

Wilson states that he found the Lodge heavily in debt, and he had to work hard to cancel the debt, but he had about done so, and would soon commence to make arrangements to build. I had to suspend several of the brethren for refusing to obey a legal summons, etc. E. Mulholland, W. M. Brazleton, J. D. Page, and S. Grimes were suspended until June 15th, and Bro. D. H. Harris until the first monthly meeting in June.

June 1. Visited Rowland Holt Lodge No. 50. This is one of the Lodges that was captured from compact-faith, and is very slow in performing its duty. They were ordered to meet at 7 o'clock, and it was 10 o'clock before we got the Lodge opened. The W. M. failed to have his Lodge summoned as ordered.

June 4. Visited Mount Moriah Lodge No. 25. She is very near the same she was last year. I had hoped that she would have been in a new hall by that time. She has had a hard time, and has not built yet, but has bought lumber, and promised to be in the new hall before December.

June 8. Visited J. M. Alexander Lodge No. 1. The members of this Lodge are rejoicing over the fact that they are in perfect unity. They are doing their work well. A large number of the members met me at the Lodge upon my annual visit. The brethren seem to be in earnest this year, getting ready to entertain the Grand Lodge.

No financial report.

June 10. Visited Independence Lodge No. 22. This Lodge is preparing to build. Bro. Brown said he would be in his new hall by the first of September. Peace and harmony prevails. We had an interesting meeting, after which a fine lunch was served, and we all ate heartily and felt good. Bro. M. R. Perry read a very interesting paper on the "Rise and Progress of Masonry."

June 15. Visited Hope Lodge No. 47. This Lodge is in a good condition. Being in the bottoms, it is effected every spring by overflows; but peace and harmony are their watch-words, and sincerity is their principle, hence progress is their reward.

June 17. Visited Mississippi Valley Lodge No. 49. This Lodge has not done as well as she ought to have done. The W. M. and brothers have been neglectful—one waiting upon the other to go ahead instead of all pulling together. I hope Bro. Juniper will adopt a new plan this year—use a little more law, and the brethren will work better. They promised a lodge-room this year. We will wait and watch.

June 21. Visited Emanuel Lodge No. 31. This Lodge is doing well, although it has suffered a great loss this year by not following my instructions in regard to the putting of their money in bank or some one's safe. The Treasurer used the money, and when called upon to settle he could not do so. It had the effect to discourage the brothers of the Lodge a great deal; but they promise to attend to him when the court meets, which I am certain they will do if he fails to settle.

June 23. Visited Clark Lodge No. 18. This is the poorest Lodge in the State. The W. M., Bro. James M. Owens, left his Lodge, his family and his church without any cause, apparently. The Junior and Senior Wardens and nearly all the brothers left also. Whilst this is a prosperous part of the country, the change in politics, etc. seems to have frightened the brethren so that the Lodge is all to pieces. I called what was left of them together, and gathered up several brothers from Kentucky and conferred three degrees on a Mr. Brown Lee. I also held their election and placed Bro. H. D. Donaldson, of Columbus, Ky., in charge of the Lodge. I think she will move off all right now. I suspended James M. Owens and L. S. Kirkwood for not reporting their removal, etc.

June 27. Visited Silver Square Lodge No. 12. This Lodge is all right as usual. The members seem to be of one accord, seeing who can best work and best agree, having for their guide wisdom, strength and beauty, all blended together, making one immense tower.

Amount received this year		$144 95
Paid out	$ 76 00
Amount on hand		68 90

June 28. Visited Meridian Sun Lodge No. 32. Bro. Dansby, the W. M. of this Lodge, has woke up at last. He promised last year to have his hall completed by the time our Grand Lodge met. I thought he was mistaken, but to my surprise he has it all right, and retired from the front and placed Bro. Guyton at the head. She is doing well.

Amount received this year		$127 67
Paid out	$105 02
Amount on hand		22 65

June 29. Visited Plymouth Rock Lodge No. 38. This Lodge has not come up as Bro. Smith promised she would; but he made another promise, which I hope he means this time—that he will be in his new hall by July 15th. We will ask him to explain. The Lodge is in good working order, and promises to be behind none of her young sisters in the near future.

Amount received this year		$178 80
Paid out	$168 80
Charity	4 50
Total	$173 30	$178 80
Amount on hand		10 20

June 30. Visited Pilgrim Lodge U. D. This is one of the Lodges set up October 20, 1886. Has her hall built and paid for before coming to the Grand Lodge to get a charter. This is a first-class recommendation for a charter. They are in splendid working order. I suspended John Williams and Martin Chisum for conduct unbecoming a Mason. She has $156.65 in her treasury.

July 1. Visited Lebanon Forest Lodge No. 46. This Lodge is progressing slowly but surely, and bids fair to become a good, strong Lodge. I have great hopes of her; her prospects are flattering.

Amount received this year		$126 50
Paid out	$ 17 85
Charity	32 25
Total	$ 50 10	$126 50
Amount on hand		76 40

July 2. Visited Trenton Lodge No. D. This Lodge is all right. She is doing a good work. The brothers all seems to be of one mind. I am satisfied they will keep the path. They propose to build very soon.

Amount received this year		$110 45
Paid out	$ 29 10
Amount on hand		81 35

July 4. Visited Hicksville Lodge No. D. This Lodge was set up in October last, but they are like busy men. They have built them a hall and paid for it, and have money left; and they did this without a W. M., he having left soon after the Lodge was set up. I placed Bro. Alex. Chandler at her head, and he promised to build her up.

Amount received this year		$113 15
Paid out	$ 73 00
Amount on hand		44 15

July 6. Visited Beith's Landing Lodge U.D. This Lodge is in an overflowed district. She suffered greatly by it, but notwithstanding all this inconvenience, she has her hall nearly completed. Bro. Lee promises to be safely housed in it by the first of November. We have hope in her. Amouut received this year, $71.50.

July 11. Rising Sun Lodge No. 11. This Lodge has completed her fine hall, and the members are all working together in unity. Bro. Bryant and his brethren deserve great credit for their noble effort. Remember the maxim: only try, and you will succeed.

July 12. Visited Scruggs Lodge U. D. This Lodge is doing as well as could be expected. She is very young, but I am compelled to say that she is powerful. She has a very good hall, but when the members saw Rising Sun hall they became dissatisfied with their own, and say they are going to build a new hall. The Lodge has received $16.50 this year.

July 14. Visited Beulah Lodge U. D, This Lodge has completed her hall at a very heavy cost, and I made my annual visit in it. Bro. Nesbitt says just give her a chance and he will show the old Lodges that they are not progressive or keeping up with the times. I felt like throwing up my hat after we got through with our Lodge meeting. This Lodge has received $335.25 this year.
