SECTION 1. The style and title of this body is "The Grand Commandery of Knights Templars and the Appendant Orders of Massachusetts and Rhode Island."

JURISDICTION.

SECT. 2. Its jurisdiction extends over the territorial limits of Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

POWERS.

SECT. 3. In it alone is vested the right and duty, which it cannot delegate, to superintend and govern all commanderies of Knights Templars and the appendant orders within this jurisdiction.

It has exclusive power to grant dispensations and warrants for forming and opening commanderies of the above orders, within this jurisdiction, and to extend or revoke the same.

It enacts statutes and issues edicts, and amends and repeals the same.

It censures, suspends, and erases councils and commanderies, and holds any of their members amenable for any violation or neglect of its statutes and edicts, and has supreme authority, throughout this jurisdiction, in all matters pertaining to Templar Masonry, subject only to the ancient landmarks of the Order, and the Grand Encampment of the United States.

MEMBERS.

SECT. 4. It shall consist of a Grand Commander, Deputy Grand Commander, Grand Generalissimo, Grand Captain-General, Grand Prelate, Grand Senior Warden, Grand Junior Warden, Grand Treasurer, Grand Recorder, Grand Standard Bearer, Grand Sword-Bearer, Grand Warder, Grand Captain of the Guards, ex officiis; of all Past Grand Commanders and Grand Masters, Past Deputy Grand Commanders and Deputy Grand Masters, Past Grand Generalissimos, and Past Grand Captain-Generals of this body, so long as they remain members of commanderies under this jurisdiction; of the Commanders, Generalissimos, and Captain-Generals, for the time being, of all subordinate commanderies under this jurisdiction ; and of all Past Commanders of such subordinates, so long as they are members of commanderies under this jurisdiction, each of whom shall be entitled, when present, to one vote and no more, except as proxy.

A permanent member has but one vote in his own right as such, and but two in any case.

ATTENDANCE AND PROXIES.

SECT. 5. Each of the officers named in the preceding section, save and except Past Commanders, being unable to attend the conclaves in person, shall have the power to appoint a proxy, who shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of his constituent, except that of taking his rank in Grand Commandery.

Such proxy must, at the time of his service, be a member of the same subordinate commandery as his principal, and a Templar of not less than three years' standing, and must present a properly authenticated certificate of his appointment.

The R. E. Grand Commander, immediately after his installation, shall appoint a committee of three members as a standing Committee on Credentials, for the year ensuing, whose duty it shall be to ascertain and report to the Commandery, as early as may be at every conclave, who are entitled to seats therein ; also a committee of three members who shall be styled a Committee on Printing, whose duty it shall be to supervise the printing of the Proceedings, and shall have authority to decide what shall be printed therein, and the Grand Recorder shall act under the advice and direction of said committee in all matters of printing; also a committee of three members to be styled a Committee on By-Laws, who shall take into consideration and report upon all by-laws of subordinate bodies which may be referred to them by the Grand Commandery or Grand Commander.

OFFICERS, ELECTION, AND TITLES.

SECT. 6. The first nine officers shall be chosen by written ballot; the others, together with a Grand Sentinel, by appointment of the Grand Commander.

No Knight is eligible to any office in this Grand Commandery, unless he be a member of some subordinate commandery, and a Templar of not less than three years' standing.

The officers thus chosen shall serve until their successors have been duly elected and installed. The title of the Grand Commander is "RIGHT EMINENT"; that of Deputy Grand Commander, "VERY EMINENT"; of the other Grand Officers, "EMINENT."

shall be presented, and the consideration of such matters as pertain to the general good of the Order.

Special conclaves may be held at the pleasure of the presiding officer; but no business shall be transacted at a special conclave, save that which was specified in the original notice

PREROGATIVES AND DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

SECT. 8. The Grand Commander shall have a watchful supervision over all the subordinate commanderies, and see that all the constitutional enactments, rules, and edicts of the Grand Encampment of the United States, and of this Grand Commandery, are duly and promptly obeyed.

The Grand Commander and Deputy Grand Commander, at their pleasure, visit and preside in any subordinate commandery, and give such instruction and direction in the work and ritual as the good of the Order may require, always conforming to the ancient landmarks and this Grand Constitution. The Deputy Grand Commander, in the event of the death, removal, or physical incompetency of his superior, shall act as the Grand Commander.

It is the duty of the Grand Commander, in person or by one of his council, to visit and examine every subordinate commandery under dispensation once in three months, and every chartered commandery annually, and cause a report of the same to be made at the annual conclave of this Grand Commandery: provided, however, that when in the judgment of the Grand Commander the interest of the institution will be promoted thereby, he may designate one of the Grand Lecturers to make such visit and report to him.

It is the duty of the Grand Treasurer to report to the Grand Commander or presiding officer whenever and as often as there shall be a surplus of one hundred dollars in the treasury, not subject to any appropriation already made, and to invest the same by and with the advice of the first two officers.

It is the duty of the Grand Recorder, annually, to communicate to the Grand Recorders of all State Grand Commanderies, and to the Grand Recorder of the Grand Encampment of the United States of America, a list of all the Grand Officers of the Grand Commandery, and all such other matters as the R. E. Grand Commander shall deem to be for the general good of the Order, or useful for their information.

The other duties of the above officers, and the duties of the other officers, are such as are traditionally appropriate to their offices, and such as may be required of them by this Grand Commandery and the Grand Commander.

NEW COMMANDERIES.

SECT. 9. Dispensations for forming and opening new commanderies, upon the petition of not less than nine Knights Templars residing within the jurisdiction, may be issued by the Grand Commander during the recess of the Grand Commandery only. Dispensations so issued to be of force only until the next stated conclave of this Body, unless continued by vote thereof: provided, however, that no dispensation shall be issued without the consent of the commandery nearest to the place where the new one is to be located; and if in that town or city there is more than one, the consent of all shall be obtained.

Charters shall be granted by vote of the Grand Commandery alone, and at a stated conclave.

A commandery formed within this jurisdiction without a dispensation or charter as above provided, shall be deemed illegal; and all communication between commanderies under this jurisdiction and the members of such illegal ones is hereby strictly forbidden.

SECT. 10. The fees for a dispensation are forty dollars to the Grand Commandery, and three dollars to the Grand Recorder; and for a charter, sixty dollars to the Grand Commandery, and seven dollars to the Grand Recorder; and for a charter without a previous dispensation, one hundred dollars to the Grand Commandery, and ten dollars to the Grand Recorder. In no case shall a dispensation or charter be issued until the required fees shall have been paid to the Grand Treasurer.

SECT. 11. The invested funds of this Grand Commandery, heretofore established by the provisions of the Constitution, and now held in accordance with said provisions, shall constitute the Grand Fund. The income of said Grand Fund, but no part of the principal thereof, may be expended for charitable or other purposes, as may be determined by the Grand Commandery. All unexpended income of this Fund, and all donations to the same, shall be annually added to the principal.

A board, to be styled "The Trustees of the Grand Fund of the Grand Commandery, K. T. of Mass. and R. I.," shall be constituted in manner following, viz.: The R. E. Grand Commander and the E. Grand Treasurer shall be, ex officiis, members of said board; and there shall be elected at the regular conclave in October, 1879, three members of the Grand Commandery, to serve, one for one year, one for two years, and one for three years, as members of said board, who, during their term of service thereon, shall hold no other office in this Grand Body; and thereafter there shall be annually elected one such member of said board for the term of three years. Any vacancy occurring in the board shall be filled for the remainder of the term by the Grand Commandery, by election at any regular or special conclave.

It shall be the duty of said board to hold in trust, for the benefit of the Grand Commandery, the property belonging to the said Grand Fund, and to attend to the care and safe and profitable investment thereof. They shall make a detailed report, in writing, of the condition of the said

Grand Fund at each annual conclave. A failure to make such report, unless excused by the Grand Commandery, shall render the members of said board ineligible to election to any office in the Grand Commandery the ensuing year. The Treasurer of the Trustees shall give bonds, with sureties to the satisfaction of the board, for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office.

ARTICLE II.—SUBORDINATE COMMANDERIES.

SECT. 3. Every subordinate commandery shall hold a conclave at least quarterly for improvement and business.

JURISDICTION.

SECT. 4. Every subordinate commandery shall have exclusive jurisdiction in receiving applications for and conferring the Orders of Knighthood over all territory lying nearer by the usual travelled routes to its place of conclave than to that of any other commandery; except that the commanderies located in the city of Boston shall have concurrent jurisdiction over all territory within the limits of said city, and over any territory outside said limits wherein any one of said commanderies now has jurisdiction.

OFFICERS. — ELECTION AND DUTIES.

SECT. 5. The first eight officers shall be elected by written ballot; the others may be appointed by the Commander at the pleasure of the commandery. The officers thus chosen shall serve until their successors shall have been duly elected or appointed and installed. The title of the Commander is "EMINENT." The Commander of a subordinate commandery has it in special charge to see that the by-laws of his commandery and this Grand Constitution are duly observed; that accurate records are kept and just accounts rendered; that regular returns to this Grand Commandery are made annually; and that the annual dues are promptly paid. He calls special conclaves of his commandery at pleasure; and it is his duty, with his Generalissimo and Captain-General, to attend all conclaves of this Grand Commandery.

The duties of the other officers are such as are traditionally appropriate, and such as may be assigned them by the commandery or the Commander.
